

Union Européenne des Producteurs de Granulats
Europäischer Gesteinsverband
European Aggregates Association

Half-time Secretary

UEPG, the European Aggregates Association, represents the largest non-energy extractive industry with Members in 26 countries across Europe. Our mission is to demonstrate the key role played by the European Aggregates Industry in meeting the needs of Europe and its society and to shape EU public policy in areas where it is likely to affect the sector.

More information on: www.uepg.eu

We are currently seeking a dynamic half-time Secretary to join our small and highly-dedicated international team based in the European quarter of Brussels.

Responsibilities will include assisting the Secretary-General and the two Public Affairs professionals in their lobbying activities, monitoring EU issues, updating the UEPG website, assisting in the organisation of events, developing communication materials, and assisting in the day-to-day office management.

Requirements

- Third level qualification or practical experience demonstrated in a similar role
- French native speaker or equivalent and fluent in English
- Good knowledge of EU policy-making process and institutions
- Excellent analytical, organisation and communication skills
- Strong computer skills, particularly Outlook, Microsoft Word and Excel
- Ability to work as a team member and to meet tight deadlines

The position is available from 1 June 2018.

Contact

To apply, please send your CV in French to secretariat@uepg.eu by Monday, 5 March 2018. Your motivation letter should describe in English how you see yourself fulfilling the role as outlined above.